

Statistical Report Grading Rubrics

STA 321 Topics in Advanced Statistics

Project Report Grading Rubrics

Category	Standards
Questions	Questions are well-motivated, interesting, insightful, and novel
Analysis	Analysis is appropriate, complete, advanced, and informative
Results	Relevant conclusions are explicitly tied to analysis and to context Plots convey information correctly with adequate and appropriate reference information
Inference	Extensive and comprehensive statistical inferences are performed and justified
Code	Code must be neat, readable, well-documented, and well-organized
Writing	Explanation is correct, complete, convincing, and elegant. Writing is clear, concise, straightforward, accurate, and readable.
Reproducibility	Code should reproduce the report with no errors